

REMARKS

In the March 5, 2009 Office Action, claims 50, 57, and 64 were identified as containing allowable subject matter, but claims 46-49, 51-56, 58-63, and 65 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as unpatentable over “Using Netscape Communicator 4, Special Edition” by Brown et al. (“Brown”) and U.S. Patent No. 6,582,475 to Graham et al. (“Graham”), alone or in combination with the FinePrint documentation (“FinePrint”) or “Digestor: Device-independent access to the World Wide Web” by Bickmore (“Bickmore”). Applicant appreciates the Examiner’s indication that claims 50, 57, and 64 could be allowed if rewritten in independent form, and looks forward to obtaining allowance of this claimed subject matter. To that end, Applicant has amended independent claims 46, 53, and 60 as suggested by the Examiner to incorporate the allowable subject matter of claims 50, 57, and 64. By virtue of incorporating the allowable subject matter into the independent claims, Applicant respectfully submits that claims 46-49, 51-56, 58-63, and 65 contain allowable subject matter, and therefore requests that the obviousness rejections be withdrawn and that the pending claims be allowed. By amending claims 46, 53, and 60, Applicant is not conceding in this application that the original claims are not patentable over the art cited by the Examiner, as the present claim amendments and cancellations are only for facilitating expeditious prosecution of the allowable subject matter noted by the Examiner. Applicant respectfully reserves the right to pursue these and other claims in one or more continuations and/or divisional patent applications. Accordingly, Applicant respectfully requests that claims 46-49, 51-56, 58-63, and 65 be allowed, and a notice to that effect be issued. Nonetheless, should any issues remain that might be subject to resolution through a telephonic interview, the Examiner is requested to telephone the undersigned at 512-338-9100.
